Aldermen request signal improvements at intersections

By DENA BISNETTE

The Waveland Board of Aldermen met Wednesday with a representative of the State Highway Department to request additional traffic signals for two intersections.

The additional signals were requested for placement on Nicholson and Waveland Avenues where they intersect with US-90.

"The growth here in Waveland has been more than we anticipated, and some of these places have become very dangerous," said Mayor John Longo Jr.

He said both intersections have signals now, but the city wants left turn signals added.

Fred Kyle, the highway department representative, said he had been unaware there were problems at Nicholson and Waveland Avenues but said he would make the request for the city.

He requested the assistance of the Waveland Police Department in obtaining information about accidents and traffic at both intersections.

The streets will probably have to be widened for the construction of turning lanes to make the requested signals effective, Kyle said.

According to Longo, the only anticipated problem with widening the streets will be on the south side of the Nicholson intersection, where ditches may have to be moved or covered with culverts.

Kyle said the collection of traffic data has been completed for the intersection of McLaurin Street with the highway, where the city had previously requested a traffic light.

In other business, the board approved the advertisement for bids for a concrete base and metal building to be placed near the water tower on US-90.

The building will replace the city's present police station. Bids will be opened next month.

The aldermen also appointed Sharon Bissonette as deputy city secretary.

Other business included approval of a request from Delmer Wilcox for lights at the Amtrak stop; approval of a request from Bay Area Youth Soccer for the use of the field next to the civic center; and opening bids on a truck for the city utilities department.

The board meets again at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Investigation continues in downtown burglaries

By DENA BISNETTE

Bay St. Louis police and the Hancock County Sheriff's Department are still looking for whoever robbed six downtown businesses Thursday night.

Break-ins were discovered Friday morning at the Sea Coast Echo, the superintendent of education's offices in the Hancock County Youth Court building, Chapman Office Supplies and the offices of attorneys Nicholas and Michael Haas, all on Court Street.

Also burglarized were the Sunday Herald Bureau and Mississippi Power Company on Main Street.

Acting Police Chief Murray Ladner said he believes that the burglars were looking only for cash, since office equipment, cameras and other items of value were left behind.

Taken from the Sea Coast Echo office, which was entered through a back window, was a safe containing about $750 in cash, checks and stamps.

"We're very fortunate that the majority of our business is done by checks," said Sea Coast Echo Publisher Ellis Cuevas. "Stops have been placed on all checks taken in the robbery."

A safe was also removed from Mississippi Power Company, but it contained only a small amount of petty cash, according to Area Accounting Supervisor Rex Gilbert.

Gilbert said a cap found near the rear of the building by Sheriff's Department Investigator Delbert Seay apparently belonged to one of the burglars.

The thieves entered Mississippi Power by breaking a window in a garage-type door, then cutting the metal above the window until the opening was large enough for a small person to crawl through.

The entry was apparently made after the burglars unsuccessfully tried to come in through the attic of the Sun-Herald office, where a ceiling in a back room was damaged, police said.

Sun-Herald Bureau Chief Edith Bierhorst Back said the office had been entered through a back window and $19 in petty cash, the only money left overnight in the building, was missing.

The other offices were entered in a similar manner. A small amount of change was taken from the school offices and Chapman's and about $10 in cash and an opal necklace were missing from the attorneys' office. Windows were damaged in all three buildings.

Ladner said the weight of the safes indicate that more than one person was involved in the burglaries. According to Police Investigator Joe Pica, the size of the cap Seay found and the small holes used to enter Mississippi Power indicate that at least one person involved in the crime was of small stature.

The sheriff's department has released descriptions of three suspects, including a white female with short blond hair; a 6-foot-2-inch tall white male with short blond hair and a short beard, believed to be about 25 years old; and a 5-foot, 8-inch tall, dark-haired male about 19 years old.

Investigators are also looking for a beige vehicle, probably a 1984 to 1978 model, with a Harrison County tag.

Anyone with information about the burglaries may contact the Bay Police Department at 467-4221 or the Hancock County Sheriff's Department at 467-5101.

CAP OWNER SOUGHT—Hancock County and Bay St. Louis police officers are seeking the owner of this cap who is a suspect in a rash of Thursday night burglaries. The black cap has the slogan 'My two best friends are Charlie and Jack Daniels' and has a fiddle background. It also contains four confederate trinkets, one a rebel flag with the state of Virginia, rebel flag state of Florida, rebel flag state of Kentucky, and a fourth a confederate display. Anyone with information as to whom the owner of such cap may be asked to call Hancock County Sheriff's Investigator Delbert Seay at 467-5101, or Bay police Investigator Joe Pica at 467-4221. STOLEN BOAT—A warrant has been issued for a BaySide Park resident in connection with this twin 35-foot twin engine boat reportedly stolen between Sept. 21-23 in Texas. Hancock County Sheriff's Investigator Delbert Seay said the suspect was out of state and a warrant was issued for his arrest. Those removing the boat on Thursday, from right, are Seay, Sam Bernier, Sam's Wrecker Service; Hancock Deputy David Garcia, Glen Strong, and Willard Gayville. Seay, who is in charge of the case, was also assisted by Hancock County Deputy Howard Poole. (Staff photo by Ellis Cuevas).

LET'S TALK FACTS

On Nov. 6, we will vote yes for, not only a new jail, also new office facilities for our sheriff and his staff. Since 1972 grand juries have consistently recommended improvements be made to the sheriff's office space as well as the jail area.

AT PRESENT:

STAFF—Eighteen employees share a working space confined to 60x30 feet.

OFFICE SPACE—Included in this square footage is the Sheriff's Office (8x10) and another small office with one desk shared by two investigators.

WAITING AREA—Non exists at present.

CONFERENCE ROOMS—No private area for investigators or attorneys to either confer with clients or question suspects.

HOLDING OR BOOKING AREA—No place for those waiting to be booked or post bond.

EVIDENCE ROOM—Present space is "Make-Shift" and inadequate to store evidence properly until trials.

STORAGE OF RECORDS—Inadequate space and furnishings makes filing and storage of vital records almost virtually impossible.

DISPATCHING AND RECEIVING AREA—Dispatching, receiving, holding, and booking all share an 8x10 area. This space is hardly adequate for one office, much less four.

The inadequate and obsolete facility described above presently serves not only the sheriff, but the two local Police Departments in addition to the District Attorney's office. The responsibilities and inconveniences of our Sheriff's Department continue to grow each day as our population grows. The need is urgent!

VFW Ladies Auxiliary officers urge voter participation in Nov. 6 General Election

Editor
The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Sir:

We live in the greatest nation of the world and we are guardians of liberty because we love America.

We are the refuge for the whole world for those who find themselves in bondage and looking for freedom.

We are a proud nation and the other nations look up to us for guidance.

We believe in peace and love.

We owe the greatness of this nation to our veterans because they have given their blood and lives so that we may have this wonderful way of life that we have today.

We can never give those mothers back their sons but we must show them that their sacrifice was not in vain.

So when you go to vote on Nov. 6, remember that they fought for your right to vote, so now use it!

Go out and cast your vote for the one that can do the most for our country.

Don't let the veterans down; listen to all phases of the campaign.

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars takes an active part in the Legislative program and it promotes programs on underprivileged children and child abuse, handicapped assistance, aid for education, and the elderly who need assistance.

Get out and cast your vote. Vote for the person who is the most qualified to complete the task that needs to be done.

Lack of information fuels opposition to jail bond issue

The Editor

Re.: The jailbond issue

It appears that this issue is not too clear to some of our citizens, so, with utmost respect to their right to dissent, the following may clear a few points:

A criminal holding facility (jail) is governed by federal and state laws, in that order.

Our present jail, built in 1937 to hold 15 persons, has outgrown the needs of the county to the extent that it is now in an illegal mode and it is only a matter of time until the federal government orders us to pay a $5,000 fine per day until the proper facility has been built and ready for occupancy (re.: Mobile County).

When that happens we are faced with an incredible penalty for the next two or three years, to be paid by all alike. So the choice is entirely ours: pay now or pay a lot later.

A group of our elected officials made a trip to various new jails, built to the proper standards; each of them asked three taxpaying citizens to form a committee and homogenize a plan of action to be presented to the voters in order to secure acceptance of a bond issue.

The architect drew up the plans in accordance with the standards as set forth by federal and state law for a facility to hold 65 inmates.

It should serve its purpose for at least the next 20 years or so, based on the staggering growth of this area.

All points and plans were discussed in many meetings, open to all who wished to hear and comment, and properly publicized in the newspaper.

There were no secrets or hidden facts and they were held at night.

To put the cost of building this jail in the proper perspective, it may help to compare it with things in our daily lives.

It costs less than one jet engine on an airliner or a few cigarettes or a drink a day. And all that for the security we so badly need.

As to air conditioning, it reads: airfreshening. It is cheaper to do it through central control, and security is greater by not having to build large openings.

As for heat: no comment, likewise the TV lounge area and the cafeteria with home-cooked meals. Or does anyone suggest igloos, soundless tombs and catering?

As for the toilets, the law requires stainless commodes without lid and solidly anchored in concrete (and they don't come cheap).

A county jail does not hold "hard" criminals (murderers, etc.) permanently.

They must be held until convicted and beyond all appeals. After that they must be transferred to the state prison. Again: that's the law.

That same law requires that the inmate has access to any lawbook he

If you don't cast your vote you will be hurting our country and you will not be able to criticize or find fault with the results.

In Mississippi one of the things trying to be enforced upon us is a waste dump.

They considered us to be illiterate and unaware as to what was going on in this great state of Mississippi and that this waste dump could be slipped in and we would have to accept it.

So remember this when you go to vote.

The Theodore S. Price Ladies Auxiliary 3253 and its members are appealing to you to exercise your right to vote.

If you need a ride to the polls call Jeanne Garcia, president, at 467-7991; Lucille Boudreaux, legislative chairman, 467-4974; or the post home on corner of Third and Washington Streets, 467-9136.

Let's keep this country great and keep Old Glory flying high and our ideals and morals high.

Let's forget the past and look to the future. Let's turn this nation around; let's elect leaders who can do this and go forward; let's show the world that we are proud of our nation that gives our people a better way of life.

Quotables by CUEVAS

NOT MUCH ROOM—Hancock County Sheriff's Investigator Alvin Ladner has to stretch to reach file in the records closet of the sheriff's office. Sheets on floor under copying machine are evidence for a case. The Hancock County Sheriff's office is in need of more space in all departments in addition to a new jail.

EVIDENCE HOLE—Hancock County Investigator Alvin Ladner says he is unable to enter locker where evidence for such crimes as murder is kept in the Hancock County Sheriff's office because of the small size of space. The locker is crowded with guns and all types of evidence which has been stored by the law enforcement officers.

DISPATCHER'S ROOM—Hancock County Dispatcher Melba Shaw is among the many radio communications and telephones used by the Hancock County Sheriff's office. The crowded office is used for booking inmates, and releasing inmates, in addition to keeping communications with sheriff's deputies and other law enforcement agencies. This is another area in need of more space in the Hancock County Sheriff's office.

IN CONGRESS

By Cong. Trent Lott

THE 99th CONGRESS IN REVIEW

The 99th Congress has finally adjourned. I'm afraid it was with a whimper and not a cheer, and I would like to take this opportunity to look back on this past year in particular at what was done that was good, things that were done that were bad, and things that we should have done.

We did pass very good legislation that provided emergency funds for improved education in math and science. This law establishes a federal program to increase the quality of math and science in public schools, including the provision of college scholarships for students intending to teach math or science.

We also passed aid to El Salvador so that that country can try to move into a more democratic government and eliminate the fighting and deaths on both sides of that country's political squabble.

The Congress cleared a revenue sharing measure. Revenue sharing is one federal program that actually returns tax dollars to the local level. It lets the locally-elected officials and the people in the communities make the decisions on where funds should be spent.

We beefed up and passed a four-year program for vocational education. It's very important for states like Mississippi and a lot of people in this country to have adequate vocational education. With that good education, people can get jobs, and I think we should concentrate more money on vocational education for that reason.

The Equal Access Act is another good piece of legislation passed by the Congress. This measure guarantees that school districts receiving federal aid will provide student religious groups the same access to school facilities for meetings as they provide to all other student groups—nothing more, but at least equal access.

We finally passed the crime package that we have been debating for years here in the Congress. Crime is on the downswing, and we need this new law to keep it going in that direction.

And, we passed the Bankruptcy Reform Act, but not until we had worked on it for over a year. This legislation was necessary to provide for bankruptcy judges limited in scope and term to make them constitutional.

In the category of bad bills that were passed by the House this year, the worst measure was the domestic content legislation. This bill would wind up costing the American people more for their automobiles. It addressed a real problem of what to do about foreign cars coming into this country, but it did so in the wrong way. I was very pleased that the bill did not make it through the Senate.

Unfortunately, there were good bills the Congress didn't approve. One of them was a line-item veto for the President. He could save us a lot of money if we gave him this veto. Another is enterprise zones which would help downtown urban areas with unemployment problems. We also should have enacted legislation to allow homemakers to participate in Individual Retirement Accounts on an equal basis with women who work outside the home.

I will be pressing for the completion of this unfinished business in the 99th Congress.

News From The Governor's Office

Gov. Bill Allain

By Executive Order we have created a private sector council that I believe can become one of the most productive groups in state government.

The "Private Sector Action Council" is the conclusion of months of research on the best methods of studying the taxes and programs of state government. The council will be privately funded and will spend its time reviewing the myriad of state tax laws and determining the spending priorities for state government for years to come.

Thirty-two Mississippians, who have established outstanding reputations in the private sector, have agreed to serve without pay on this council. They are donating to the state countless hours of their time, as well as years of professional experience. I believe the end result of their deliberations will provide a blueprint for state government for a long time.

Specifically, the council will undertake a comprehensive study and evaluation of the entire tax structure of the state of Mississippi, including, but not limited to, sales taxes, income taxes, privilege taxes, fuel taxes, use taxes, excise taxes, severance taxes, franchise taxes, alcoholic beverage, wine and beer taxes, estate taxes and premium taxes.

In addition, the council will conduct an ongoing review, analysis and evaluation of state programs of expenditures, their objectives, priorities, levels and benefits to the economic development of the state and its citizens.

American Heart Association

WE'RE FIGHTING FOR YOUR LIFE

Our ultimate goal with the establishment of this council is to find taxation methods that are fair, equitable and just for our citizens while insuring that we get the maximum spending worth out of every tax dollar that you pay.

We also hope that the council will make recommendations for streamlining some of our procedures relating to state taxes, again to better serve you, the taxpayers.

Every state agency and department has been requested to cooperate with the council by providing it with information regarding functions and operations of the agencies.

The council will establish a close working relationship with the State Treasurer, Chairman of the State Tax Commission, State Fiscal Officer, Director of the Research and Development Center and Tax Study Committees of the State Senate and State House of Representatives.

At the conclusion of the deliberations of the council, the State of Mississippi will have a working plan for state government—our biggest business.

County schools prepare to request bond issue

By DENA BISNETTE

The Hancock County School Board has authorized the drafting of a resolution requesting a bond issue. The board made the authorization Saturday, saying the bond issue is needed to alleviate an overcrowding problem in the district.

Funds needed for the proposed

By KATY MCGUIRE CAIRE

Southern cooks are the "stuffiest"—not stuffiest—cooks around, from their various stuffed vegetables to stuffed poultry to meats—not only tasty but an excellent budget stretcher as well.

An old-time favorite of the Deep South, and elsewhere, is stuffed pork chops, thick (two inches) chops into which you or the butcher have cut generous slits or pockets to hold the stuffing, usually cornbread dressing, though you may use a bread or rice and fruit combination, if you prefer.

Served with baked or pan-fried sweet potatoes and green beans, it's a meal to savor. Here's:

Southland Stuffed

Pork Chops

6 to 8 pork chops
2 cups crumbled cooked cornbread
1 chopped apple
¼ cup chopped green onions
¼ cup chopped bell (green) pepper

Scant dash of sage

Pepper, salt as desired

First, make the dressing, of course. Add just enough water to the cornbread to make a moist dressing. Sauté the apples, onions and peppers in butter or oil, season to taste, adding the bit of sage, and stir into the cornbread.

Stuff the chops, then either pan fry until brown and well done, or sear the chops and bake in a 350° oven for approximately an hour.

The other day I had on hand only several small pork tenderloin slices—no problem. I just browned one side of each little chop, then put two together, sandwich-fashion with the stuffing in the middle. I secured with skewers (you may also use tooth picks) and baked until cooked. (Copyright, 1982, Katharine D.M. Caire)

COLD IN ANTARCTICA

After a long winter, 50 degrees feels warm. But imagine a summertime high of minus-25 degrees. That's what it's like in Central Antarctica, says "National Wildlife's" "Ranger Rick" magazine. The average year-round temperature is minus-90 degrees.

building program, designed by architect Fred Wagner, total about $6.2 million. The program includes renovations and additions at Gulfview Elementary, Charles B. Murphy Elementary and Hancock North Central.

Superintendent Terrell Randolph said the building program will provide for the implementation of kindergarten in 1986, but added that lack of space has become a critical problem due to unexpected growth in the district's student population.

Randolph said more than 200 new students have entered the districts' schools this year.

Board President Billie Faye Lyons said about a half-dozen students have moved into the district in the last week alone.

She asked Randolph to try to find some way to alleviate the problem before the building program begins, but he said the use of more trailer classroom units would only be a temporary solution.

In other business, the board entered into its minutes several letters to and from the state Ethics Commission. The letters concerned a 1983 complaint against Randolph by Brenda Ladner.

Mrs. Ladner had alleged that Randolph had violated required purchasing procedures when he arranged to replace a boiler that exploded in late 1982 at Hancock North Central Elementary School.

A letter from the commission stated that Randolph had been cleared of the charges in September 1983, since normal bidding procedures are not required if the board declares an emergency situation.

However, the letters were supposed to be entered into the board minutes, which had not been done before Saturday, Mrs. Lyons reported.

In other business, the board approved the employment of several substitute teachers, cafeteria workers, a janitor and other personnel; approved several resignations and maternities leaves for district employees; and approved three requests for use of school facilities.

Pirates anything but Blue after exorcising Devils

By EDGAR PEREZ

An aggressive, determined-to-win gang of Pirates invaded Pearl River Central Stadium in Carriere and spoiled the evening for the Blue Devils with an 11-9 upset football victory Friday night.

The 184-pound running back Jason Owen and his PRC comrades started out entertaining the home crowd by crashing through the Pirate defense virtually at will.

Pirate fullback Jeffrey Payne saved the visitors from an early drive by the Devils when he scooped up a fumble by PRC quarterback Gerald Tillman at the Pass 20.

The turnover late in the first quarter ended a long Blue Devil drive which started at their own 30.

The Pirates, however, were unable to move, and in punt formation on fourth down and eight at the 23 a high snap from center resulted in a two-point safety for the hosts with seconds left in the first quarter.

After taking the Pirate kickoff at his own 43, PRC running back Cedric Tillman drove 13 yards into Pass territory.

Three aerial attempts by QB Gerald Tillman were unsuccessful, and the Devils punted.

The Pirates found themselves with their backs to the wall when the PRC ball rolled dead at the five.

The Pirates were forced to punt from the 12, giving PRC first and ten at the visitors' 41.

Owens bulldozed his way through the Pirates for 10 on the first play, and finished the job on the second try, scoring on a 35-yard run with 8:47 left in the first half.

An extra point kick was good giving the Blue Devils a 9-0 lead.

The Pirate determination to stay in the ball game began to show when they returned the kickoff from their 10 to mid-field.

Faced with fourth and ten at the PRC 47 after three unsuccessful pass attempts by QB Joey Rogers, Pass elected to go for it but the fourth Rogers attempt in the series was intercepted at the PRC 34 by running back Terry Wactor.

In the following Devil series,

Owens picked up 11 yards rushing and Tillman hit wide receiver Jonathan Carter for a 15-yard advance.

But the Pirate defense was already closing in, sacking Tillman twice and forcing the Blue to give up the ball after an incomplete pass on fourth down and 17 at the Pass 33.

With two minutes and ten seconds left in the half, the Pirates engaged in a dramatic seven-play attempt to get on the score board before time ran out.

Fullback Omar Saahir entered an 11-yard run into the statistics, and Rogers struggled vainly to hit a receiver, more than once firing off the football with Blue Devils hanging all over him.

Pearl River's possession at their own 45 was short lived. Pirate tight end Irvin Hall grabbed off a Tillman long attempt at the Pass 20 with only 14 seconds left in the half.

From the 20, Rogers hit sophomore quarterback John W. Dedeaux at the Pirate 40 from where he raced the ball to the Blue 20.

The clock had run out on the next play when Rogers found Hall in the PRC end zone for six.

The Pirates lined up for a one-point conversion, but Rogers again tossed to Hall who had raced behind two Devils in a far corner of the end zone to complete for two.

Intermission saw the visitors trailing by only one with 8-9 posted in favor of the hosts.

Defense was the name of the game in the third period when the Pirates held the Devils off on a drive to the Pass 20 and on two other possessions bottled up the Blue offense in their own territory.

The Blue Devils held the Pirates inside their own 30 on one series and frustrated another drive to the PRC 30 which included a 30-yard run by tailback Winston Ausmer.

A Rogers interception in the fourth quarter followed by a Rogers completion to Hall set the visitors up in a fourth and goal situation on the PRC eight yard line.

Otis Gates, under extreme pressure with only three minutes left in the game, blasted the big one—a 25-yard field goal—through the posts to give his side its 11-9 winning margin.

Pearl River fans on the sidelines gave up, commenting, "That's the end of the game tonight."

But the Blue Devils on the field hadn't quit yet.

The game was saved for the Pirates by a valiant defensive effort in the closing seconds to cap exceptional defensive play through most of the evening, especially in the second half.

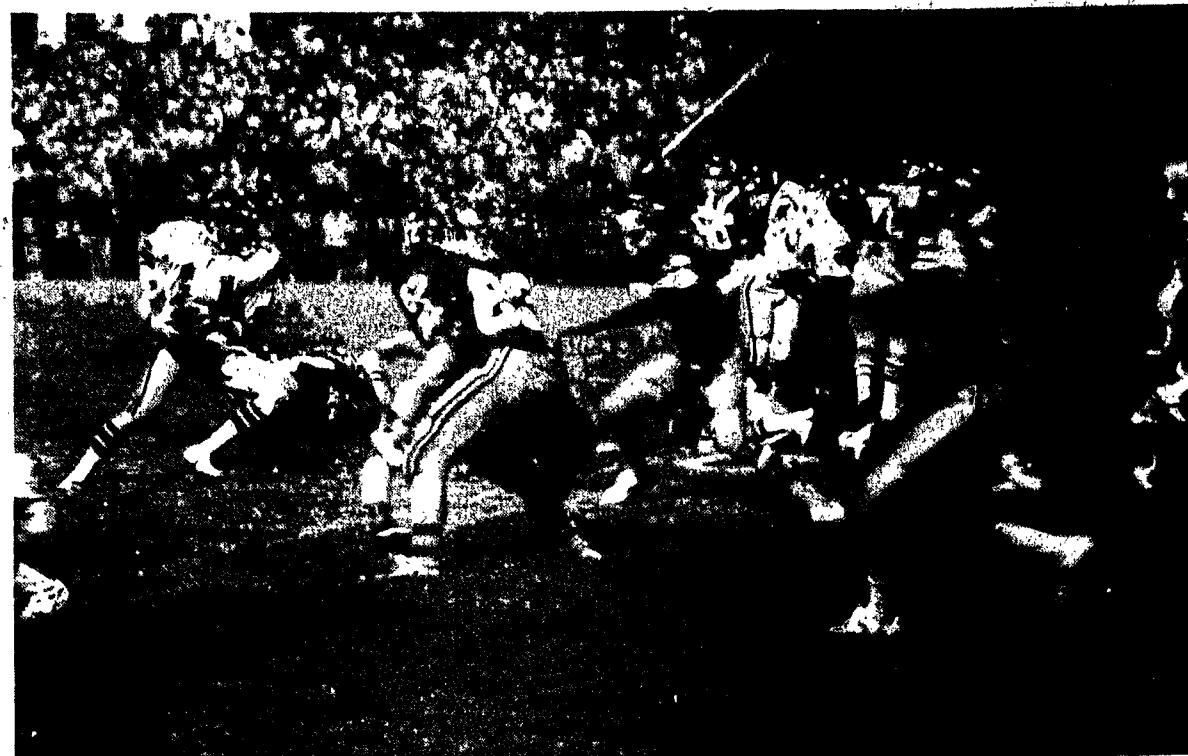

Rogers and split end Mark Boyd saved a touchdown with 48 seconds left when they quashed a long toss from Tillman to Carter near the Pass goal on fourth down.

The chore for the Pirates then was resolved down to having Rogers fall on the ball to run out the clock, and make a jubilation journey back to Harrison County.

The Pirate victory was directed by the cool-headed coaching of head mentor Alton Wright and the masterful molding of the defense by assistant Larry McGill.

"We're real pleased with the effort our team put out tonight," Wright said.

"We beat a super ball club in an emotional ball game—we got the big play at the end of the first half and we wanted to win bad enough to make it pay off," the Pirate chief added.

This week, Pass Christian, now 5-2 overall and 3-1 in district, hosts Vancleave.

Also Friday, PRC visits d'Iberville.

Tigers win 42-8

By DENA BISNETTE

The Bay St. Louis High School Tigers, typically a team that waits until the second half to show their best, changed their image Friday with their 42-8 victory over East Central.

"They played a superb first half," said Tiger Head Coach Cleveland Williams. "I didn't think they could excel like that."

The Tigers spent most of the first half playing offense and racking up points on the visitors' side of the scoreboard.

The Tigers started their scoring with a pass from quarterback Jeffery Smith to Richard Whavers, who ran it in for six points and a total of 79 yards on the play as East Central Hornets chased him down the field.

Stace McRaney added a PAT kick, giving the Tigers a seven-point edge with 10:30 to go in the first quarter.

On the next series of plays, Smith picked up an East Central fumble, giving the Tigers control again. Two plays later he sent the ball airmail to Quentin Bell, who ran it in for a 35-yard touchdown.

McRaney kicked again to give the Tigers a 14-point lead with a little over seven minutes left in the quarter.

A little over 10 second later, Greg Necaise added two points on a safety.

The Tigers led 16-0. Before the first quarter ended, however, Smith put the ball in the air again, this time to Eddie Nelson. Nelson ran it in for a touchdown and a total of 21 yards on the play.

Seconds before the first quarter ended, Jay Ginn picked up another Hornet fumble to switch Bay High back to offense.

As soon as the Tigers had changed to the other end of the field, Smith put the ball back in the air, passing it to Matt Fairconnetue.

Fairconnetue ran in for a touchdown that brought the Tigers six more points and 80 yards.

McRaney added a kick to bring the score to 29-0 with 11:48 left in the second quarter.

On the next series, Nelson intercepted an East Central pass, setting up a running play on the Hornet 17 yardline that resulted in a touchdown for Jessie Parker.

The score stood at 35-0 until the end of a scoreless third quarter.

With 6:28 to go in the fourth quarter and most of the less experienced Tigers on the field, Bay High scored again when Fairconnetue intercepted a Hornet pass and ran 35 yards for a touchdown.

McRaney kicked for a PAT and the score stood at 42-0 until East Central managed to break through the Tiger defense for a touchdown and a two-point conversion with less than two minutes left on the clock.

The Tigers take to the road again next week when they face St. Martin.

Hawks shut down Vancleave

By BRENDA HEATHCOCK

Taking their third victory of the season the Hancock North Central High School Hawks put a defensive hold on the Vancleave Bulldogs Friday night to win the game 7-0.

The Bulldogs gained two points on a tactical move by the Hawk quarterback Melton Lewis who used the last five seconds in the game running back into the Bulldog end-zone.

Hawk coach Irvin Favre said he was proud of the team's third win in a row and also of the defensive squad's efforts.

"Overall we didn't play well," Favre said, "we had a number of opportunities that we didn't cash in on. This made a close game that shouldn't have been close."

Friday's loss for Vancleave was the fifth in a row although they had a strong first half last week against Stone County.

Against the Hawks, Vancleave fumbled the ball three times, lost the ball three times on downs, had one interception and punted twice.

During the game the Bulldogs mounted one strong drive, which gained them 61 yards before the ball was turned over on downs.

Vancleave received the kickoff, ran three plays and fumbled inside Hawk territory.

The Hawks took the ball, made two first downs and scored, with less than five minutes in the game.

Charles Burton started the play with a four yard run and ended the drive with a four-yard run for the points. Stanley Jourdan added nine yards, Frank Ladner added five and Lewis connected with Tony Guidry for a 15-yard pass.

Hawk kicker, Drew Malley made the extra point.

Unsuccessful drives by both teams took the game into the second quarter.

The Hawks next possession netted one first down before a 15-yard penalty forced a punt.

Vancleave fumbled the punt and Scott Curet recovered for the Hawks inside their own territory.

Hancock North Central threatened to score again as they drove the ball down the field inside the 10-yard line. A field goal attempt was no good and the Bulldogs took over.

At this time Vancleave ran seven plays, gaining 61 yards before having to punt.

An unsuccessful drive by the Hawks led into halftime, and the score was 7-0.

Burton received the second half kickoff for the Hawks and returned it for 31 yards. Following this the ball was turned over once by each team on downs.

The Hawks moved within field goal range again following a drive started with a 30-yard run by Jourdan. The field goal was no good.

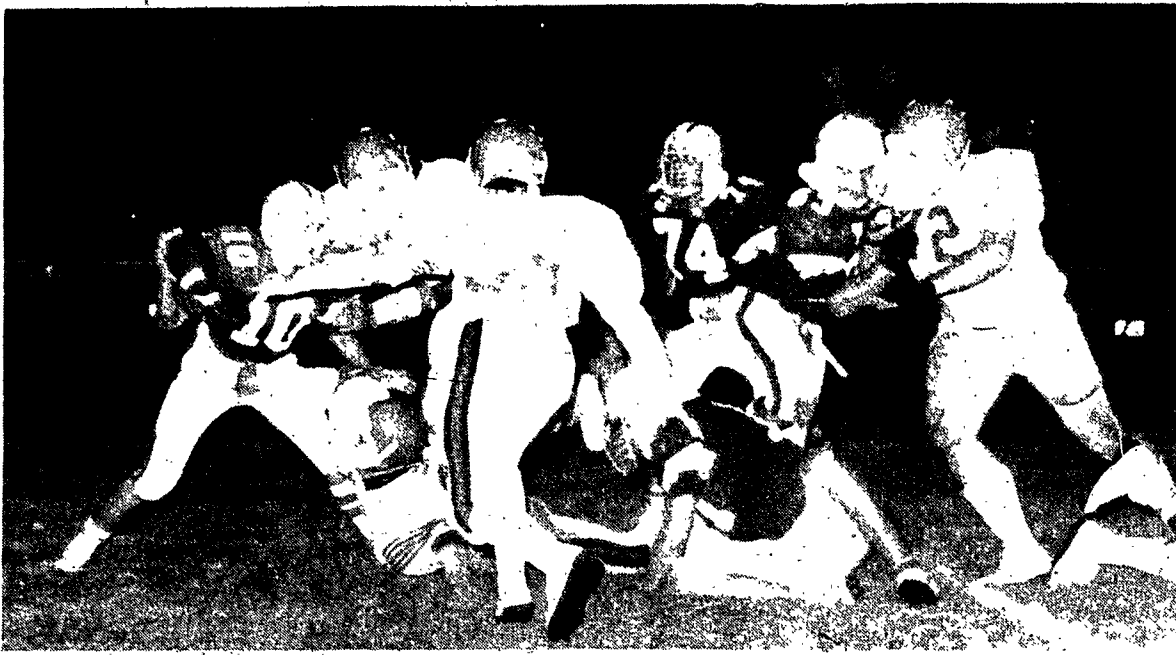

Fourth quarter action for the Hawks saw a fumble just short of a touchdown.

Three turnovers on downs followed then the Bulldogs picked off a Hawk pass and Hawk quarterback Lewis turned the table and intercepted a Bulldog pass.

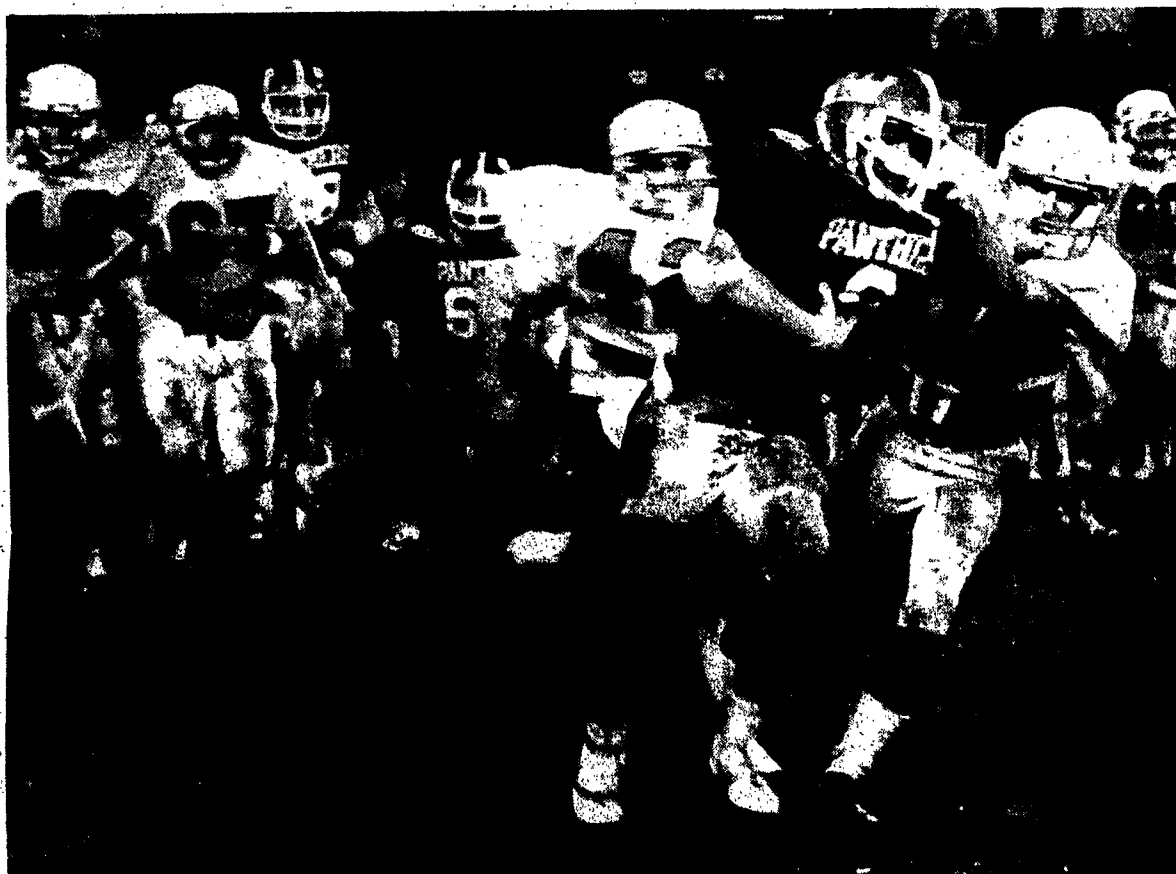

This interception began the final drive of the game which ended with a safety for the Bulldogs and a five point win for the Hawks.

Favre said the Hawks are looking forward to playing Mercy Cross next week and the chance to even their record.

The game will be the Hawks last home game of the season. Kickoff will be at 7:30 p.m.

Panthers defeat Rock-A-Chaws

By TOM ACKERMAN
Special Correspondent

The ride to Petal Friday might have been a long one for the St. Stanislaus Rock-A-Chaws, but the trip home must have seemed even longer. In a one-sided display of power and poise, the Petal Panthers pounced on their visitors with a 47-7 win.

The Rocks knew it was going to be a long night from the beginning, when, on the opening kick-off return, the Panthers returned the ball 95 yards for the first score with only seconds gone from the clock. The point after failed, but in retrospect, that wasn't going to make a whole lot of difference.

On their first possession, the Rocks found out that playing on a rain-soaked field sets the stage for incomplete passes and slippery fumbles.

The Rocks yielded the ball to Petal on four plays with two incomplete passes, and then managed to stop the Panthers, giving up only one extra first down.

Stopped at their own 44, the Panthers elected to punt. But that slippery ball created some problems, and Petal retained possession at the Rock 10 after a bobbled punt reception. Moving to the 9 on three plays, Petal attempted a field goal, but it was wide of the mark and the score stood 6-0, for a little while longer, anyway.

Once again, stopped after four tries, the Rocks gave up the ball to Petal at the Panther 39. From there, three first downs later, Petal was up 14-0 following a short pass and a two-point pass conversion. A minute-seven showing on the first quarter clock.

At the beginning of the second period, things started looking up for the Rocks. On return, running back Todd Thriffley carried to the 26 and a late-hit penalty brought the ball to the 41.

Then, what appeared to be a favorable omen, running back Mark Logan ran up the right side, turned around just in time to see a pass headed his way from Rock quarterback Matt Scardino, scooped it bodyward, and scampered to the 46.

The Rock drive was halted at the Petal 40. But, seeming filled with new drive and determination, the Rock-A-Chaws held the Panthers to four plays and four yards highlighted by a key take-down by Rock defender Jordan Bradford on the second play of the Petal series.

On three series, the Rocks moved to the Petal 37 on key runs by Logan, Thriffley, Chuck Yarborough and a keeper by Scardino.

With five minutes left in the first half, the Panthers took over at the SSC 37 and moved to the 8 in six plays. From the 8, Petal Quarterback Kevin McClure sneaked across the goal line on a keeper to stretch the gap to 20-0, PAT no good, 4:23 left in the half.

Stanislaus fumbled on their next possession giving up the ball at their own 37. Petal moved to the 6 in three plays, and McClure took it over again for a 26-0 lead. The PAT failed once again; 1:56 left on the clock.

For the Rocks, it was now or never.

Thriffley picked up the punt once again, this time from the 10 to the Rock 43. A personal foul against Petal brought the Rocks into Panther territory on the 37.

After one failed pass attempt, Logan carried on a pitchout from Scardino to the 18. Then a face mask penalty against Petal brought the Rocks within striking range to the 11.

On a double reverse, Logan managed to get to the 9. And from there, Thriffley twisted and turned his way to cross over for the Rocks' only score with 7 seconds left in the first half. Rock kicker Matt Spotorno did his job, and the score stood at 26-7 going into the lockers.

The Rock-A-Chaws returned to the field after the break with what appeared to be a new lease on life, but their drive seemed to be dashed almost immediately when the gave up the ball after only two plays into the period.

Petal took over on the Rock 27, and six plays later they had moved to 33-7 with a score from the 17 and a good conversion; 8:28 showing.

Three minutes later, it was 39-7. In the fourth quarter, both teams now fielding their JV squads, Petal scored their final TD with 7:36 on the clock, added another PAT, and sent in number 20, 95-pound sophomore Chris Craft.

The loss brings the Rocks' record to an even 3-3 season with three tough opponents still left on the schedule.

Next Friday, the Rocks will travel to East Central to try to better their 50 percent mark.

On November 2, SSC will face Pass Christian at Pass High. And the Rocks will close the season at home against Vancleave for their Homecoming.

Hancock Historical Society seeking information on Cedar Rest's unmarked graves

Members of Hancock Historical Society will be available in Cedar Rest Cemetery Oct. 26 through Nov. 1 to record any unmarked graves or graves with headstones unreadable because of wear or damage.

The cemetery has been marked by rows with temporary markers and all readable graves have been recorded and listed in alphabetical sequence.

Of the 2,350 possible first burial spaces only 1,532 names are readably marked; 198 headstones have been broken or are blank; six names do not have a family name; 381 vacant spaces are within copings which indicates possible spaces for families with future burials. There are possibly 174 vacant plots unclaimed by copings or markers.

The Historical Society, P. O. Box 1340, Bay St. Louis, seeks help in recording family members whose markers have been destroyed or if anyone has proof of friends who were buried in this cemetery.

This cemetery is on the National Register of Historical Places, the north part having been given to the city in 1860.

Among Hancock's notables buried here are John B. Toulme, first mayor of Shieldsboro; John Martin who gave land which is now a part of Main Street; Joan Newman Seal who gave a part of the cemetery, and Louis Piernas, first postmaster of Shieldsboro.

The point after failed, but in retrospect, that wasn't going to make a whole lot of difference.

On their first possession, the Rocks found out that playing on a rain-soaked field sets the stage for incomplete passes and slippery fumbles.

The Rocks yielded the ball to Petal on four plays with two incomplete passes, and then managed to stop the Panthers, giving up only one extra first down.

Stopped at their own 44, the Panthers elected to punt. But that slippery ball created some problems, and Petal retained possession at the Rock 10 after a bobbled punt reception. Moving to the 9 on three plays, Petal attempted a field goal, but it was wide of the mark and the score stood 6-0, for a little while longer, anyway.

Once again, stopped after four tries, the Rocks gave up the ball to Petal at the Panther 39. From there, three first downs later, Petal was up 14-0 following a short pass and a two-point pass conversion. A minute-seven showing on the first quarter clock.

At the beginning of the second period, things started looking up for the Rocks. On return, running back Todd Thriffley carried to the 26 and a late-hit penalty brought the ball to the 41.

Then, what appeared to be a favorable omen, running back Mark Logan ran up the right side, turned around just in time to see a pass headed his way from Rock quarterback Matt Scardino, scooped it bodyward, and scampered to the 46.

The Rock drive was halted at the Petal 40. But, seeming filled with new drive and determination, the Rock-chaws held the Panthers to four plays and four yards highlighted by a key take-down by Rock defender Jordan Bradford on the second play of the Petal series.

On three series, the Rocks moved to the Petal 37 on key runs by Logan, Thriffley, Chuck Yarborough and a keeper by Scardino.

With five minutes left in the first half, the Panthers took over at the SSC 37 and moved to the 8 in six plays. From the 8, Petal Quarterback Kevin McClure sneaked across the goal line on a keeper to stretch the gap to 20-0. PAT no good, 4:23 left in the half.

Stanislaus fumbled on their next possession giving up the ball at their own 37. Petal moved to the 6 in three plays, and McClure took it over again for a 26-0 lead. The PAT failed once again; 1:55 left on the clock.

For the Rocks, it was now or never.

Thriffley picked up the punt once again, this time from the 10 to the Rock 43. A personal foul against Petal brought the Rocks into Panther territory on the 37.

After one failed pass attempt, Logan carried on a pitchout from Scardino to the 18. Then a face mask penalty against Petal brought the Rocks within striking range to the 11.

On a double reverse, Logan managed to get to the 9. And from there, Thriffley twisted and turned his way to cross over for the Rocks' only score with 7 seconds left in the first half. Rock kicker Matt Spotorno did his job, and the score stood at 26-7 going into the lockers.

The Rock-chaws returned to the field after the break with what appeared to be a new lease on life, but their drive seemed to be dashed almost immediately when the gave up the ball after only two plays into the period.

Petal took over on the Rock 27, and six plays later they had moved to 33-7 with a score from the 17 and a good conversion; 8:28 showing.

Three minutes later, it was 39-7. In the fourth quarter, both teams now fielding their JV squads, Petal scored their final TD with 7:38 on the clock, added another PAT, and sent in number 20, 95-pound sophomore Chris Craft.

The loss brings the Rocks' record to an even 3-3 season with three tough opponents still left on the schedule.

Next Friday, the Rocks will travel to East Central to try to better their 50 percent mark.

On November 2, SSC will face Pass Christian at Pass High. And the Rocks will close the season at home against Vancleave for their Homecoming.

Hancock Historical Society seeking information on Cedar Rest's unmarked graves

Members of Hancock Historical Society will be available in Cedar Rest Cemetery Oct. 26 through Nov. 1 to record any unmarked graves or graves with headstones unreadable because of wear or damage.

The cemetery has been marked by rows with temporary markers and all readable graves have been recorded and listed in alphabetical sequence.

Of the 2,350 possible first burial spaces only 1,532 names are readably marked; 198 headstones have been broken or are blank; six names do not have a family name; 361 vacant spaces are within copings which indicates possible spaces for families with future burials. There are possibly 174 vacant plots unclaimed by copings or markers.

The Historical Society, P. O. Box 1340, Bay St. Louis, seeks help in recording family members whose markers have been destroyed or if anyone has proof of friends who were buried in this cemetery.

This cemetery is on the National Register of Historical Places, the north part having been given to the city in 1860.

Among Hancock's notables buried here are John B. Youlme, first mayor of Shieldsboro; John Martin who gave land which is now a part of Main Street; Joan Newman Seal who gave a part of the cemetery, and Louis Pierns, first postmaster of Shieldsboro.

Lott addresses Friendship Oak

National Defense was the topic chosen by Congressman Trent Lott when he addressed members of the Friendship Oak Chapter National Society Daughters of the American Revolution on Saturday. The luncheon meeting was held at the Blue Rose Restaurant in Pass Christian with Mrs. James R. Thomas, hostess, making introductory remarks.

The message from Sarah M. King, president general NSDAR was read by Mrs. Nunez C. Pilet of Bay St. Louis. Mrs. Pilet serves as recording secretary for the chapter. Mrs. King reminded the group that Oct. 11 marked the 94th anniversary of the society which now has a membership of 212,000 daughters.

"October is a special month to us this year," Mrs. King said and explained that the Comte de Grasse Chapter of Virginia had the honor of serving as hostess for the annual celebration of the surrender of Lord Cornwallis to General George Washington at Yorktown.

Sharing the highlights of her travels, Mrs. King said she made an official visit to each of the five chapters in Alaska, then flew north of the Arctic Circle to pay a call on a chapter in Fort Yukon before going to Sidney, Australia for confirmation of a new chapter there.

Mrs. Philip Davenport, chapter agent, presented Congressman Lott with a pair of poult d'eau (chickens in the water).

'Speaking Oracles of God'

—1 Peter 1:11

By W. Edwin Kearley
Minister

501 Pine St.

Bay St. Louis

The nature of man requires that he worship. Man has been found worshipping animals, inanimate or dead objects, his fellowman or according to the direction of the creeds of men. It is distressing when people worship their pleasure, power, youth, beauty, popularity or their intelligence.

All of these vanish with time. Jesus said concerning the Jews of his days upon the earth, "But in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men" (Matt. 15:9).

What is worship? The Greek word proskuneo found in Matt. 4:10 and John 4:24 means "to kiss (the hand) toward" (Youngs Analytical Concordance to the Bible, by Robert Young).

W.E. Vine defines proskuneo to mean "to make obeisance, do reverence to (from pros, towards, and kuneo, to kiss).

This is the word most frequently rendered worship in the New Testament. It is used of an act of homage or reverence." (An Expository Dictionary of New Testament Words, by W.E. Vine, MA).

What are the correct objects of worship? People have always had a tendency to worship the wrong thing. When Paul went to Athens, he found a very religious people.

They had a diverse worship. Paul said, "For As I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, to the unknown God...whom ye ignorantly worship, him declare I unto you" (Acts 17:23).

Jehovah God, the originator of all things, must be worshiped (John 4:24). Jesus rebuked Satan and said, "...thou shalt worship the Lord thy God..." (Matt. 4:10).

The wise men from the East worshiped Jesus. "And when they were come into the house, and fell down, and worshiped him..." Matt. 2:11). Since "Christ died for the ungodly" (Rom. 5:8) and as Christians we are "reconciled to God by the death of his son" (Rom. 5:10); we have greater reason to worship Jesus Christ the Son of God. Since the Holy Spirit is a part of the Godhead, he is to be worshiped also.

How should we worship? Jesus said, "God is a Spirit; and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth" (John 4:24). This passage states two conditions of acceptable worship. 1. In spirit. 2. In Truth.

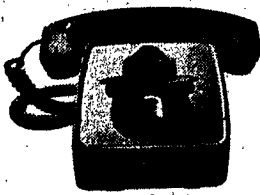

We must worship with the correct attitude toward God. Also, our worship must be as God directs us in his word. There are five items of worship found in the New Testament church. They are the Lord's Supper (Act. 20:7), apostles teaching (study), prayers, fellowship (giving) (Acts 2:42), and singing (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16).

With what kind of spirit must we worship? It must be done as follows:

1. With a spirit of humility and contrition because God is holy (1 John 2:20).
2. In the spirit of gladness and gratitude because God is a benevolent spirit (James 1:17).
3. In the spirit of fear and reverential awe (Rev. 1:12,18).
4. With all the faculties of mind because God is an intelligent spirit (Matt. 22:37).
5. In the spirit of love—love for God and man (Matt. 5:23-24; 1 John 4:8).
6. With a forgiving spirit because God is a forgiving spirit (Matt. 6:14-15).
7. In the spirit of faith—of implicit trust in his word because God is invisible (Ex. 20:45; II Cor. 5:7).
8. In the spirit of a child because God is a fatherly spirit (Matt. 6:9).

Worship is a great opportunity and responsibility. May we never forget these two facts. Gratitude and love should draw us to the time and place of zealous worship. David wrote, "I was glad when they said unto me, let us go into the house of the Lord (Ps. 122:1).

THE MORMONS

Waveland Branch
Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints

The areas served by the Waveland Ward of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, which includes all of Hancock County and the Pass Christian area, have recently welcomed a new missionary.

Shaun Shields, 19, has joined Thad Colgrove, 20, who is already serving in Hancock County.

Each of these young men will spend approximately 70 hours per week helping people learn more about the gospel of Jesus Christ.

When asked about their missions, Elder Shields said, "My mission is a great growing experience for me and I'm learning a lot about myself and people in general. Through service I have gained a knowledge of the truthfulness of this gospel."

Colgrove added, "I really enjoy it! It is a great experience to be able to share the Savior's message with the people here in the South."

Like all missionaries for the church, Shields and Colgrove receive no pay for their labors.

They are supported entirely by savings previously accumulated and money donated by their families.

When their service is concluded, they are honorably released and return to college or vocational pursuits.

They will not serve their total 18 months in this area, however. Transfers to different cities are made every few months by mission headquarters in Baton Rouge, La.

Shields is from Tooele, Utah, and has five brothers and three sisters.

He is a high school graduate and has attended two terms at the LDS Business College in Salt Lake City.

Utah. He served his home ward by teaching Sunday School and by being a home teacher.

Prior to his mission call, Shields worked two years in a grocery store and also worked in his family's pizza business.

When he completes his mission, he plans to finish his schooling at Weber State University in Utah.

Colgrove is from Mesa, Ariz. and is the second oldest of five children.

He has been a missionary for 11 months thus far, serving in Baton Rouge before being transferred to Hancock County.

He is a graduate of Mesa High School and has worked for a wood product manufacturing company before his mission call.

When asked about his future plans, Colgrove stated, "I plan on getting a degree in accounting at Brigham Young University in Provo, Utah."

The growth of the church has come about largely because of its missionary program, which extends throughout the United States and in most other countries of the free world.

Every year thousands of young men and women voluntarily accept calls to become proselyting missionaries for 18 months.

Doctors, nurses, nutritionists, and medical technicians also serve as missionaries in developing countries, where the church's expanding health services program emphasizes preventive health care.

Anyone wishing information on the church and its programs may contact Elder Colgrove and his companion, Elder Shields at 467-7875; or Waveland Ward Bishop Harry L. Bell at 533-7180.

Down Home

By Darlene Underwood

Main dishes are the most expensive part of the food budget so careful attention to shopping for main dishes can help save on the food budget.

When beef cuts are on the menu, remember that some cuts are naturally more tender than others. Learn to use some of the less tender cuts as well. They save money while providing good eating when properly prepared.

Cuts from the less-used muscles along the back of the animal—the rib and loin sections—always will be more tender than those from the active muscles such as the shoulder, flank and round.

The most tender cuts make up only a small proportion of the beef carcass, and they are in greatest demand. They, therefore, sell for a higher price than other cuts.

The best guide in identifying beef cuts is the standard terminology generally recognized throughout the meat industry. These include rib, ribeye, rump, sirloin tip, eye-of-round, heel of round, blade chuck, shoulder arm, shoulder clod and brisket.

The rib roast is unexcelled for tenderness and flavor, ease of preparation, carving and serving. It is a favorite for company fare. Rib roast can be oven-roasted in the top four grades but for maximum tenderness, juiciness and flavor select U.S. Department of Agriculture Prime or Choice.

Because it has a rather large proportion of bone and fat, allow at least one-half pound of rib roast per person. For company meals, allow up to a pound per person. Buy it at least two ribs thick for proper cooking.

Ribeye roast is the meaty, boneless heart of the standing rib. This cut has excellent flavor and is superbly tender in the higher grades. Like the standing rib, from which it is cut, it can be oven-roasted in Prime through Standard grades. Allow a third of a pound per person.

Rump roast is a very flavorful cut, but it is less tender than the rib and it also contains a considerable amount of bone. In Prime, Choice and Good grades, it can be oven-roasted; pot roast the lower grades. The rump is often sold boned and rolled, for easier carving. Allow at least a half-pound of bone-in rump per person, about a third of a pound per person for boneless rump.

Sirloin tip roast is boneless with very little waste. Despite its name it is not as tender as a sirloin steak. It has good flavor and in Prime, Choice and Good grades is tender enough to be oven-roasted. Allow at least a third of a pound per person. This cut is also frequently called loin tip, round tip or knuckle.

Eye-of-round roast is a lean, meaty, less-tender cut with a good flavor. It may be oven-roasted in Prime and Choice grades but should be pot roasted in lower grades. Allow at least a third of a pound per person.

Heel of round is a boneless, less-tender roast from the round. This cut contains several muscles, of varying tenderness. It should be pot roasted regardless of grade. Allow at least one-third pound per person.

Blade chuck is an economical roast with excellent, full beef flavor. This one can be oven-roasted in the Prime and Choice grades, although it has several muscles that vary in tenderness. All grades make excellent pot roast. Three-fourths of a pound are needed per person.

Shoulder arm roast contains less bone than the blade chuck, but this cut is less tender. It has the same well-developed flavor. All grades are used for pot roast. Allow about one-half pound per person. This beef may be labeled as bone chuck or arm roast.

Shoulder clod is a meaty cut from the outside of the chuck. It has a well developed flavor and no bone. A fairly tender cut, it may be oven-roasted in the Prime, Choice and Good grades. Use lower grades for pot roast. Allow one-third pound or more per person.
